

Peninsula Crafts Society
Autumn Exhibition

Saturday 23rd & Sunday 24th October
10 am – 4 pm
At
Ipswich High School for Girls,
Woolverstone (on the B1456 – IP9 1AZ)

There will be the usual abundance of Crafts from Renowned Local Craftspeople and Guest exhibitors at this lovely location, built in 1776 as the home of William Berners. It is now the home of Ipswich High School for Girls.

As always, most of the craft items on display will be for sale, including beautiful patchwork quilts, weaving, woodturning, including an array of unique hand made salt & pepper mills, pottery, fine jewellery and many more wonderful items, too numerous to list.

Refreshments, including freshly made rolls, homemade cakes, tea and coffee will all be prepared by Amada Groom from A Piece of Cake.

Guest exhibitors will include - Karen Clixby (Mixed Media), Carol Lacey (Beadwork), Julie McCormack (Photographer of Local and Scottish scenes), Andrew Fitzsimmons (Stained glass panels), Chris Deacon (Mosaic platters)

Admission –Free

Parking – Free

Catalogue – 50p

We, the members of the Society, look forward to welcoming our regular visitors and hope to meet some new friends.